

Class Test
2nd year GNM Students
Nursing Training School
Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay Govt. Medical College & Hospital
Sub: Paediatric Nursing

Full Marks: 25

Time- 1 Hour

Q.1 Fill in the blanks:

1*10=10

- a. In appendicitis triad symptoms include _____, _____ & _____.
- b. Cleft palate must be repaired before _____ development.
- c. Congenital absence of ganglionic cells in submucosa of stomach is known as _____.
- d. Telescoping of one segment of intestine into other is known as _____.
- e. Three signs indicating Tracheoesophageal fistula at birth are _____, _____ & _____.
- f. Position preferred to feed a baby having cleft palate is _____.

Or

Device used to prevent tension on suture line, after repair of cleft lip is called as _____.

Q.2 Answer the following questions:

- a. What do you mean by Hirschsprung's disease?
- b. Write down the clinical features of such condition.
- c. Explain nursing management of a child with this condition.
- d. Discuss about colostomy care.

2+3+6+4=15

Or

- a. Define pyloric stenosis.
- b. Discuss the probable clinical features of pyloric stenosis.
- c. Name the surgery done for pyloric stenosis.
- d. Describe pre & post operative management of a child with pyloric stenosis.

2+3+1+4+5=15